

This motivational quote reflects one of my philosophy in life. "If you don't expect you'll never be disappointed". That's why whenever I do something , I'll never expect to succeed to it and be just an pessimistic. That way a little bit of success would come as a big surprise to me instead of being disappointed due to high expectations.